NSW BUDGET 2019 AND MACHINERY OF GOVERNMENT CHANGES PSA CPSU NSW DELEGATES' MEETING

The NSW Treasurer, Dominic Perrottet, handed down the NSW Budget for 2019-20 on Tuesday 18 June 2019.

He promised that the NSW Government will "build a better future for everyone in NSW, no matter where they live" by funding the commitments they made at the state election in March 2019.

Just before the election, Premier Berejiklian also told the people of NSW, "You can have it all".

We now know that is not true. Up to three thousand public service jobs have been earmarked to go over the next four years. They are cutting us to the bone. There is no "fat" to cut, as they like to say.

In addition, new Machinery of Government changes take effect on 1 July 2019, seeing restructures, job losses and more uncertainty for NSW public servants

YOU ARE INVITED TO A PSA CPSU NSW DELEGATES' MEETING

The PSA CPSU NSW will be live streaming a delegates' meeting on Monday 8 July 2019 across four locations - Sydney, Parramatta, Wollongong and Newcastle.

General Secretary Stewart Little, Assistant General Secretary Troy Wright, and PSA President Kylie McKelvie, will address the meeting.

The meeting will be live-streamed on Facebook and on the PSA website.

There will be four venues that delegates can choose to attend to watch the live stream with other PSA CPSU NSW delegates. We strongly encourage you to attend one of those venues if you work nearby, however if you are unable to join us, please watch and interact online, wherever you are.

It will be a lunchtime meeting, so please put it in your calendar and join us at 12:30 on Monday 8 July 2019.
