

JOURNEY CLAIMS

The PSA has you covered!

The PSA has taken out a journey insurance policy for its financial members in the wake of the State Government's slashing of workers' compensation benefits in 2012.

Among the benefits cut were journey provisions (except in extreme circumstances) leaving workers and their families vulnerable.

The PSA's journey insurance policy can provide:

Whilst the PSA's actions lessen the blow of the Government's attack on injured workers, we remain committed to fighting for the reinstatement of all work injury compensation.

For full details of the PSA's journey insurance policy and other insurance for PSA members go to www.psa.asn.au/resources

Salary compensation with weekly injury benefits - 85% of salary up to $1,500 for up to 104 weeks (up to 26 weeks for members 66 to 70 years of age) if a financial member is injured whilst actually engaged in direct travel to or from their normal place of residence to or from their place of employment (not including travel deviation for non-work purposes).

You are covered ONLY if you are a financial member of the PSA.

Non-members just have to watch their step, join the PSA today.
