Industrial Bulletin
Finance, Services and Innovation
Single Flex Agreement

The Office of Finance and Services (Department of Finance, Services, and Innovation as of 1 July 2015) has written to the PSA with the intention of consolidating the numerous flex agreements across the agencies into one.

Key messages for PSA members are:

- The process will take 12 months – a new flex agreement wouldn't be in place until July 2016
- The PSA will be consulting over this period, seek input from the membership, and provide updates as they occur.

A new agreement will be required to conform to public sector guidelines. The PSA recognises the complexity of the project, given the variety of roles across the Department.
