

SAS Staff Recognition Week 2015

Celebrate SAS Staff Recognition Week
31 August 2015 – 4 September 2015
“Our jobs, Your children, Their future”

Every year the PSA organises Recognition Week to acknowledge the vital role that SAS Staff play in schools across NSW. It's that time of year again.

As modern schools step up to the challenge of educating students in this century and the demands of an ever-changing world, SAS Staff are the backbone of the great work that is being done.

Recognition Week is an opportunity for your Principal, and the school community, to show their appreciation for SAS staff members who play such an important part in ensuring the smooth running of our schools:

- Administrative Managers
- Administrative Officers
- School Learning Support Officers
- Aboriginal Education Officers
- General Assistants.

The theme for this year is:

School Administrative & Support Staff: “Our jobs, your children, their future”

Recognition Week is a PSA initiative.

Tell us what your school is doing for SAS Staff Recognition Week: morning tea, lunch or a night out?

Please let me know what you have arranged, as I can organise a visit to your school.

Send photos, as they may be published in the next edition of Red Tape, with your approval.
