Department of Justice Delegates bulletin

Following the PSA election in late 2016, your union is undergoing a restructure which is changing the way Industrial Officers and Organisers will interact with delegates, members and the Justice agencies. One of the first changes is agencies in the Department of Justice now have been allocated Industrial Officers and Organisers.

While calls will still be answered by staff in the Members Service Centre, issues requiring action or representation by PSA staff will occur at an earlier stage.

The general PSA telephone number remains the same 1300 772 679 and the email address for initial advice or referral is still membersupport@psa.asn.au or psa@psa.asn.au.

If you have moved home or work location, or you have changed your contacts, please update your membership details HERE.
(<https://membership.psa.asn.au/>)

Over the coming weeks Organisers with new responsibilities for agencies will be contacting delegates for issues such as arranging meetings.

I will also try to attend as many Departmental Committee meetings as I can to introduce myself.
