

Flexible work survey

Last year, the NSW Public Service Commission commenced consultation in relation to a sector-wide strategy on flexible work.

In September 2016, the PSA surveyed members in relation to flexible work practices.

The PSA recognises the importance of flexible work practices to members, and we thank all those who responded.

The responses formed the basis of the PSA's submission to the NSW Public Service Commission on flexible work.

You can view the submission HERE.

The Public Service Commission has issued a discussion paper HERE and asked for further input from the PSA.

Accordingly, we are now seeking additional feedback from members.

If flexible work is important to you, please complete the survey HERE.
