

Private providers under spotlight on Four Corners tonight

PSA calls on all members to watch tonight...

Alleged mistreatment and abuse at one of Australia's largest privately operated disability services providers, Lifestyle Solutions, is the subject of a special investigation by the ABC's Four Corners which will be aired tonight.

The PSA has repeatedly called on the NSW Government to retain direct delivery of disability services to ensure a safety net if providers fail, cannot provide the necessary services or in extreme cases, mistreat people with disability.
