

NSW Police Special Constables Meeting notice

As members will be aware, the Special Constables bargaining team, along with PSA staff, have been meeting with NSW Police Employee Relations to negotiate a new award. The PSA is organising a members meeting at Sydney Police Centre to provide an update on the award bargaining process and the direction forward, as well as consult with members and answer any questions:

Thursday 20 April

5:45pm-6:45pm

Sydney Police Centre – McQueen Room

Agenda

- Update on bargaining process to date and options for moving forward
- Reestablishment of the Special Constables Vocational Group
- PSA membership benefits:
 - Personal representation on individual Industrial Relations matters
 - Joining your colleagues in the fight for collective conditions and pay, including award negotiations
 - Journey Insurance
 - Provident Fund
- General business

All Special Constables members are encouraged to attend and raise any questions they have about the bargaining process or any other matter. Non-members are also welcome to come and have a chat about the benefits of joining the PSA and membership forms will be available.

Join your colleagues – strong membership means a strong union!
