

20 June 2017

Art Gallery Meeting notice

The PSA is bargaining your salary. We are holding a members' meeting to hear what you have to say about your pay rise. The PSA is also compiling a response to the NSW Budget, which will be handed down today. Recent budgets have brought savage cuts to the arts. The PSA is trying to listen to members in your vulnerable sector before responding to this budget in a way which can make a positive difference to your life.

Date: Wednesday, 21 June 2017

Time: 12:30 pm to 1:30 pm

Location: The Centenary Auditorium

In order to strengthen the PSA's bargaining position at the Gallery, in the arts sector and across the public service, all members are encouraged to invite their colleagues to this meeting so that all non-unionised workers can see what the union can do for them and what we can accomplish together.

If you would like further details about the meeting, please contact your new organiser, Harry Wall, on 0419 607 894 or hwall@psa.asn.au.

