

NAIDOC WEEK 2–9 July 2017

NAIDOC Week is an event held annually in the first week of July.

It is a time to celebrate Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultures and to recognise and share the contributions that Aboriginal Australians make to our country and society.

The theme for NAIDOC week 2017 is:
Our Languages Matter.

For further information on NAIDOC Week and events, please visit naidoc.org.au

The NSW PSA Aboriginal Advisory Committee advise you that Special Leave for NAIDOC Week is available as per the Crown Employees (Public Sector Conditions of Employment) Award;

84.9 – An employee who identifies as an Indigenous Australian shall be granted up to one day special leave per year to enable the employee to participate in the National Aborigines and Islander Day of Commemoration Celebrations. Leave can be taken at any time during NAIDOC week, or in the weeks leading up to and after NAIDOC week as negotiated between the supervisor and employee.

Please discuss with your manager as necessary.

Lets make our language and people stronger at work.
