Sydney Living Museum meeting notice

The PSA is here to fight for you. As the NSW public service and the arts are under attack, the PSA is here to defend and extend your rights and to make Sydney Living Museums a better place to work.

The PSA held a morning tea on Wednesday 31 June and we will be holding a members meeting at the Mint on Wednesday 7 June. At this meeting, you will get the chance to meet your new PSA Organiser, Harry Wall, and to talk to your Senior Industrial Officer, Kerrie Butson. We will also provide an update on the 2017/2018 public servant pay rise negotiations.

Harry will be in the Mint Clerk's Room at the Mint on 7 June from 10:30 to 11:30 for staff who would like to have private discussions. The members' meeting will start at 11:30 and end at 12:30.

For members who do not work in Hyde Park Barracks or The Mint, Harry will be attending the City Portfolio staff briefing on 6 June.

He will also be visiting Vacluse House in the morning and visiting Rouse Hill in the afternoon of 8 June.

Wherever you may be, we want to hear from you about the issues that you face and the changes that you want to see at Sydney Living Museums.

Come along and have your say!

If you are unable to attend because you are located in another site, please contact your Organiser, Harry Wall, on 0419 607 894 or hwall@psa.asn.au about organising a union meeting in your workplace.
