PSA Visit NOTICE

Legal Profession Admission Board

The union that represents NSW public servants, the PSA, is visiting your workplace to talk to staff during the lunchtime period.

Date: Wednesday 12 July

Time: 12–2pm

Venue: Boardroom, Level 4, LPAB

Topics of discussion:

- » Upcoming major changes to Department of Justice Flexi-time Policy.
- » PSA Salaries Case - Your 2.5 per cent payrise in 2017.
- » PSA lobbying and campaigns against the privatisation of essential public services.
- » Benefits of PSA Membership – workplace support, advice and representation, Journey Insurance, Accident Insurance, $3500 Funeral Fund, initial legal advice for non-workplace matters, discounted banking services with Sydney Credit Union and free Will pack. Union fees are tax deductible.

United we Bargain, Divided we Beg. The more members we have, the better results we can achieve for NSW public servants. Membership forms will be available for those wishing to join the PSA.

For more information contact the PSA on: 1300 772 679.
