Be a voice in your union – nominate as a Service NSW workplace contact and attend training

Your union will train and support you to provide information to your colleagues about wages and conditions as well as updates on campaigns.

Customised training days for Service NSW staff only are at PSA House in Sydney and are scheduled for:

- » Tuesday 19 September
- » Wednesday 20 September

Active workplace delegates and contacts are the eyes and ears of the union about emerging issues and concerns.

Other dates and locations for Service NSW training will be added according to demand.

If you are interested in attending Service NSW – Introduction to the PSA training, please click HERE.

You are also welcome to enroll in our other PSA training courses including Dealing with Workplace Bullying, Safer Together (ensuring wellbeing in the workplace) and others.

You can search for upcoming dates HERE.

PSA members have access to Special Leave with pay to attend Trade Union Training courses.

This entitlement is set out in Clause 27.4 of the Service NSW Salaries and Conditions Award.
