PoliceLink notification of vacancy on the Police Departmental Committee

The delegate elected to represent PoliceLink members on the PSA Police Departmental Committee (DC) has resigned the position, as he has taken up employment outside of NSW Police. The Police DC is a quarterly meeting of PSA delegates who represent members across all of NSW Police.

On behalf of members, the PSA thanks David Cook for the time, effort, and dedication he put into the role during his time on the Police DC.

This bulletin is to notify members in PoliceLink there is now a vacancy for a PSA delegate from this area on the Police DC. Any interested financial PSA members can nominate to fill this vacancy using the Delegate Nomination Form found HERE.

Please note, per the form, that a valid nomination must include the signatures of two financial members of the PSA.

In the event that there is more than one nomination, the other elected members of the Police DC will decide which nominee will fill the vacancy.

The nomination process is open from now until 5pm on Friday 20 October 2017.
