

Anti-Discrimination Board of NSW – PSA Lunch n’ Learn Dealing with restructures

Thursday 30 November

1pm – 2pm

Conference Room 2, Parramatta Office

The PSA is hosting an education session for staff at the Anti-Discrimination Board.

Presented by PSA Educator, Anne Kennelly, the session will examine government guidelines that inform the restructures process, how the PSA responds to restructures at the consultation and implementation stages, the role members and delegates can play, discussion around specific restructures and case studies. Fact sheets and other resources are provided to assist members in the workplace.

Time will be allocated for questions and discussions.

Afterwards, your PSA representatives will be available from 2pm-3pm to answer specific questions and concerns of members.

The event will be catered with both vegetarian and meat options but attendees can bring their own lunch.

Please send your RSVP by COB 29 November 2017 to:
