

Sheriff's Officers survey

At conciliation on Monday 6 November in relation to the Sheriff's Uniform Directive of 6 June 2017, Chief Commissioner Kite advised he will consider whether that dispute is discontinued at the hearing of our summons to produce on 17 November.

The Sheriff of NSW, Ms Hall stated the dispute should be discontinued because SOVBAG said in previous conciliations We Welcome it [referring to the direction].

Ms Hall then said based on that statement, there is no issue with the directive therefore the summons for them to produce documents around that directive should be struck out.

We have to show Chief Commissioner Kite whether Sheriff's Officers accept or do not accept the directive.

This link HERE is to a survey for Sheriff's Officers to respond to 3 questions with Yes or No and a short comment. We need your response by Monday 13 November.
