

Mardi Gras 2018: PSA here to slay!

Members and staff of the PSA/CPSU NSW were instrumental in winning the Yes vote in last year's postal survey. After a long and often difficult campaign, we finally came out victorious, and now it's time to celebrate!

The PSA/CPSU NSW is affiliated with Union Pride, the LGBTI+ arm of Unions NSW, and we are inviting members who are part of the LGBTI+ community to join us in marching in the Mardi Gras Parade with other unionists from all over the country. Allies are welcome to join, but priority is given to LGBTI+ union members, as spaces are limited.

Registrations close Monday 19 February 2018.

If you're going to Fair Day, make sure you look out for the Union Pride stall.

Your union is proud to have a diverse membership and will continue to support our LGBTI+ members. Happy Mardi Gras!
