

Office of the Department of Public Prosecutions flex agreement

The flex agreement with the Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions will be ending soon, and so the PSA will be going into negotiations with management in relation to this.

In order to best represent what you, as members of the PSA want, please fill out this short survey found HERE.

The PSA will update you as negotiations begin and throughout the whole process.

Be sure to keep an eye on your email, and reach out to your delegates, or organiser for further information.

If you are interested in getting more involved in the negotiation process, please contact your PSA Organiser - Kirra Jackson at kjackson@psa.asn.au.

The PSA only works if members like you get involved, so please reach out!

If you know anyone that isn't a PSA member, who is concerned about their flex arrangement changes, or wants to be involved in the consultation process, talk to them about signing up.

The PSA is only strong when we have a strong membership which is why it's important that we represent as many people as possible.

What can you do?

- » Fill in the survey
- » Talk to workmates about the flex agreement ending
- » Encourage your workmates to join the PSA
- » Join the PSA at www.psa.asn.au/join
- » Get more involved: contact kjackson@psa.asn.au
