

RMS – Call for nominations for delegate

Your union, the PSA, is calling for nominations for a new workplace delegate for Roads and Maritime Services, Argyle Street.

Nominations for the above position close 5pm, Monday 12 November 2018.

Workplace delegates perform one of the most important roles in the union.

As a delegate, you are the day to day face of the union in the workplace.

Delegates are the connecting key between PSA members in the workplace and the rest of the union.

Additionally, with the next round of award negotiations due to begin soon, it is essential that we have more people engaged in the process to get the best outcomes.

The workplace delegate would be able to perform this role in providing information and feedback on the process on behalf of the membership. A workplace delegate may even be able to sit at the bargaining table.

If you would enjoy the challenge of helping your colleagues achieve fair outcomes and solving problems, we would love to hear from you.

To nominate for the position of a workplace delegate, you will need to complete a nomination form which can be found HERE.

This nomination form once completed can be sent to bjames@psa.asn.au.

In the event that there are more persons nominated than positions, a ballot of members will take place to decide the outcome at a meeting of the workplace.

Further details of this workplace meeting will be released at a later date.

Also, the PSA is aware that a number of you who are listed on our system as working at Argyle Street no longer work there. We have been in the process of updating this for some time, so please if you no longer work at RMS Argyle Street, get in touch so that we can update our systems accordingly.

For further information on becoming a workplace delegate, please do not hesitate to contact your workplace Organiser Ben James.
