

Congratulations on your new delegates!

On 22 March 2019 members at NSW Education Standards Authority held their Annual General Meeting to elect workplace Delegates.

The PSA wishes to congratulate the following members who have been elected to represent you as your Delegates:

1. Gianna Robertson
2. Paul Dunford
3. Jemima Laughton
4. Marisa Kelen

PSA Delegates represent you with management

Your union represents your interests at meetings with management called Joint Consultative Committees (JCC). The purpose of a JCC is to establish a regular forum for issues and concerns to be raised with management and addressed collaboratively.

The PSA has requested that a JCC be convened to discuss matters of mutual concern and will advise members when this is scheduled.

If you have collective workplace issues you'd like raised at the JCC, get in contact with one of your delegates.

Free PSA training courses for members and delegates

PSA union training is open to all PSA members, not just delegates.

Non-members wishing to attend training will need to submit a membership application form first.

We offer a variety of courses and PSA members have access to 12 days' paid leave each two-year period to attend PSA training courses. For more information go to www.psa.asn.au/training.

Know someone who isn't a member?

A strong union means better outcomes for all members; forward this bulletin to your colleagues and encourage your workmates to JOIN the PSA today.

Having your union and its collective strength behind you in the workplace is the only way to make sure you get fair outcomes.
