

Congratulations on your new delegate!

Recently the PSA called for nominations for the position of workplace delegate at the Health Professional Councils Authority to elect workplace delegates.

The PSA wishes to congratulate Simon Milton who has been elected, unopposed, to represent you as your delegates.

PSA delegates represent you with management

Your union represents your interests at meetings with management called Joint Consultative Committees (JCC). The purpose of a JCC is to establish a regular forum for issues and concerns to be raised with management and addressed collaboratively.

If you have collective workplace issues you'd like raised at the JCC, you can raise it directly with your delegate.

Free PSA training courses for all members

PSA union training is open to all PSA members, not just delegates.

Non-members wishing to attend training will need to submit a membership application form first.

We offer a variety of courses and all PSA members have access to 12 days' paid leave each two-year period to attend PSA training courses. For more information, go to psa.asn.au/training-you.

Know someone who isn't a member?

A strong union means better outcomes for all members; forward this bulletin to your colleagues and encourage your workmates to JOIN the PSA today.

Having your union and its collective strength behind you in the workplace is the only way to make sure you get fair outcomes.

