There are still a number of vacancies that can be filled. Workplace delegates are the lifeblood of our union. You are the voice of your workplace, and you will work directly with your Organiser and Industrial Officer to advocate for your colleagues at Frank Baxter YJC. Elected delegates will be provided with training and support from PSA staff. Elected delegates also have additional protection under the Award.

Unity is strength. It is essential we are united and strong to continue protecting your rights and entitlements at work. Unionised workplaces are better workplaces.
