

Come say hi to your friendly schools team at the upcoming induction conferences!

The PSA has been advised by The Department of Education (DoE) about a number of induction conferences that are being run throughout February and March.

These conferences are generally for newer staff and give an overview of the department. However, even if you have worked at a school for quite a while, if you have not attended an induction or conference before we recommend you register to attend.

You can see what's happening in your area here:

<https://education.nsw.gov.au/teaching-and-learning/professional-learning/professional-learning-for-non-teaching-staff/course-catalogue-for-non-teaching-staff/induction-conference-for-school-based-non-teaching-staff>

Better training and conferences for all classifications

As members would know the PSA has been campaigning for better training for all classifications as the specific challenges that affect each area need quality development and support.

The PSA has made some progress in communicating the issues raised by members with DoE. We will be continuing to work on this throughout Term 1 and will report back to members as discussions progress.

As always the PSA will be there!

We love to hear from our members when we are at conferences, so come and say hi, and if you have any colleagues that haven't joined yet bring them along to the PSA table for a chat.

Two easy things you can do to support your union:

1. Support the work of the PSA and delegates by asking your colleagues to JOIN their union.
2. If members you know have not received this bulletin, forward it along to them and ask them to update their details by emailing them to membership@psa.asn.au

