

Tell us what you think: ODPP survey on your working environment and well-being

This year has been anything but ordinary so far, and the challenges of the past few months have undoubtedly been stressful for staff at ODPP.

The PSA recently conducted a webinar about Mental Health and your Wellbeing via Zoom and the feedback from those who attended was encouraging.

Building upon our webinar, the PSA has put together a survey to gain further information on your current working environment and more importantly your wellbeing.
