PSA Delegates represent you with management

Your union represents your interests at meetings with management called Joint Consultative Committees (JCC). The purpose of a JCC is to establish a regular forum for issues and concerns to be raised with management and addressed collaboratively.

If you have collective workplace issues you would like raised at your next JCC get in contact with one of the Advisory Group Delegates close to you.

Free PSA training courses for members and delegates

PSA union training is open to all PSA members, not just Delegates.

2 September 2020

General Assistants and Farm Assistants: Congratulations on your new Delegates!

Non-members wishing to attend training will need to submit a membership application form first. You can join easily online HERE

We offer a variety of courses and PSA members have access to 12 days' paid leave each two-year period to attend PSA training courses. For more information go to psa.asn.au/training-you

Know someone who isn't a member?

A strong union means better outcomes for all members; forward this bulletin to your colleagues and encourage your workmates to JOIN the PSA today.

Having your union and its collective strength behind you in the workplace is the only way to make sure you get fair outcomes.
