

PSA Student Support Officers update: Congratulations to your new Delegates!

Following the recent Student Support Officers Delegate elections, the PSA wishes to advise three Delegates have been elected to the Student Support Officers Vocational Advisory Group:

Sydney Metro Region

Yasmine Lewis Bass High School yasmine.lewis1@det.nsw.edu.au

NSW Regional North

Callum Baillie Tomaree High School callum.baillie10@det.nsw.edu.au

NSW Regional South + Central West

Nicholas Tucknott Canobolas Rural Technology High School nicholas.tucknott2@det.nsw.edu.au

The Student Support Officers Vocational Advisory Group will meet with PSA staff on a regular basis to discuss collective issues and concerns that affect the broader membership group.

PSA delegates represent member matters to management

PSA Delegates join PSA staff to raise your interests and concerns with management. The purpose of meetings with management is to maintain a regular forum to discuss member issues and concerns and address them formally and systematically.

If you have collective workplace issues you would like raised contact one of the Advisory Group delegates in your area.

Are your colleagues PSA members?

Building PSA membership in your workplace increases the collective power of our strong union, to advance the interests of Student Support Officers – so forward this bulletin to your colleagues and encourage them to JOIN the PSA today.

Free PSA training courses for members and delegates

PSA union training is open to all PSA members, not only Delegates. PSA members have access to 12 days of paid trade union leave every two years to attend PSA training courses. For more information go to www.psa.asn.au/training-you.

SSO members' meeting

A PSA SSO members' meeting will be scheduled shortly via video-conference. Keep an eye out on your emails for the meeting notification.
