Except where approval is given in accordance with sub-clause 10.7, any additional hours accrued will be forfeited at the end of the settlement period.
- 10.7. Where exceptional circumstances arise and it appears that the employee will be required by the Department to accrue more than 462 hours in a settlement period the Department may approve a higher carry over for that period and ensure the flex time record is amended accordingly.

11. MONITORING OF ACCRUED WORK TIME

- 11.1. Hours worked are to be monitored by the employee and the Department over a twelve (12) week period, through the use of flex time records, as determined by the Department.

Where a staff member has accrued 30 days / 6 weeks recreation leave, unless otherwise authorised by their manager, flex leave can only be taken where recreation leave has been applied for and approved. If, however, recreation leave has been applied for and declined or not actioned by the manager, access to flex leave is still available.

16. SEPARATION FROM THE DEPARTMENT

- 16.1. Where an employee has a flexible working hours credit or flexible working hours debit during their notice period, every effort must be made to balance the hours to zero prior to the last day of service. This will not be unreasonably refused.
- 16.2. Any flexible working hours debit on an employee's last day of service is to be deducted from any unpaid salary or the monetary value of accrued recreation or extended leave.
- 16.3. Where a flexible working hours credit exists during the notice period the Department may approve other measures locally, such as additional flex leave prior to the last day of service in order to balance the hours to zero.

- 18.2. No variation can be for longer than 12 months but may be extended for a further maximum of 12 months prior to, or at its end.

- 18.3. Any variation to the terms of this Agreement to a workgroup or employee is not permanent and subject to review as to its operational suitability.
- 18.4. Variations to the standard core time provided in clause 5 may be reviewed and varied by the Department if operational or service delivery requirements are better met.
- 18.5. An employee may apply to work a varied core time or bandwidth to assist them to balance personal or family responsibilities, or to meet the Department's operational requirements. Any approval is not permanent and is subject to review based on the employee's changed circumstances and/or the Department's operational needs. No amount of time spent working an agreed variation will be used as a basis for permanency. Each agreed variation will be dependent on circumstances, and will revert to the terms of this Agreement if the Department decides. Any such decision will be reasonable.

19. DISPUTES CONCERNING THE AGREEMENT

Any disputes concerning the Agreement will be dealt with in accordance with clause 9 Grievance and Dispute Settling Procedures of the Award.
